Winter 2012

Making Tracks

Be on the look out for our new academic discipline pathfinders soon to be available on the library web page. Pathfinders assist students in “tracking” down resources for research in their academic area. Sixteen pathfinders will soon be available within the “Guides and Tutorials” section on the Library home page. The pathfinders will identify reference materials, book categories for titles to check out, databases in which articles are likely to be found, and a sampling of subject terms for more relevant searches.
