Librarians Present at State-wide Conferences

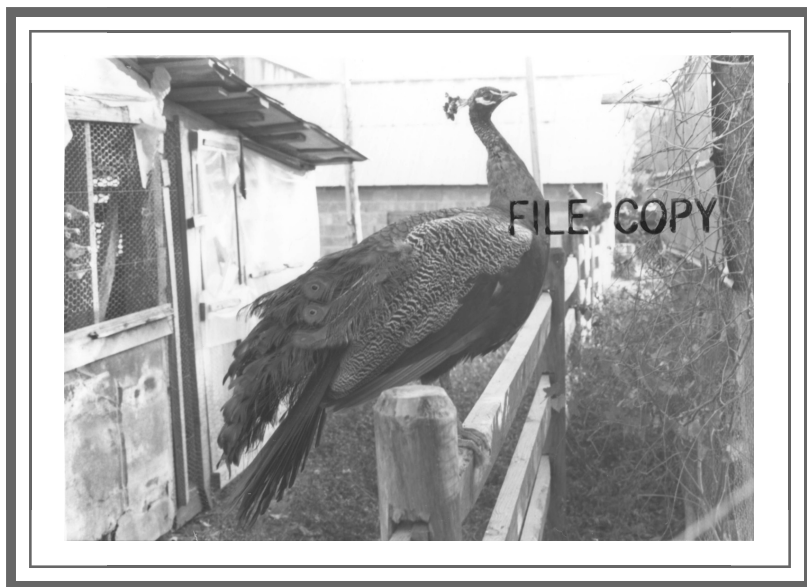

CCCC librarians Nora Burmeister and Samantha O'Connor partnered with Johnston Community College librarian, Britney Shawley, at the North Carolina Community College Library Association (NCCCLA) Annual Conference in March to present a session on "Digital Tools for Embedding Library Instruction in Online Courses." This gave our librarians the opportunity to share what we are doing with our embedded librarian program with other libraries across the state. Nora and Samantha also presented at the Librarians' Association at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (LAUNC-CH) in March, as well as a webinar for the North Carolina Library Association (NCLA). Samantha also presented at the NC LIVE Conference on May 14th. Kudos to our CCCC librarians for leading other libraries across the state in this cutting edge area of library instruction!

Archives Spotlight

Peacocks may not be native to North Carolina, but they could be spotted wandering around the vet med facilities in the early days!

Find this and other photos of CCCC in days past at the NC Digital Heritage Center. They are continuing to digitize the library's archival photos, and currently provide access to over 3000 images from our collection! You can browse these at the Digital Heritage Center's website: <http://www.digitalnc.org/institutions/central-carolina-community-college/>

SUMMER READING PROGRAMS

Chatham Summer Reading Program

Summer Reading at the Chatham Community Library kicks off on June 9th! Kids and teens are encouraged to sign up. Each participant will receive a reading log and sticker sheet to track the number of hours they read. One sticker equals 30 minutes of reading. Participants will earn small prizes along the way, including a free book at 25 hours (50 stickers)! All participants who reach the 25-hour goal will also be entered into a Grand Prize drawing to be held at the end of the Summer Reading program. Don't forget to join us for special events in June and July, all around the theme Libraries Rock! Live music, magic, rocks and gems, movies, and more are all on the calendar. More info at: <http://tinyurl.com/CCLSRP2018>.

Lee and Harnett Summer Reading

Summer reading at the Lee and Harnett Libraries begins on June 4th and runs through August 3rd. Sign up at the information desk, or contact Samantha O'Connor (ext. 7340) or Grace Sharrar (ext. 8843) for more information.

Welcome new staff, Crystal!

The Library welcomes Crystal Prevatte as our new Library Assistant for Acquisitions. Crystal began working with us in February. She has a Master's degree in Library Science from East Carolina University and a Bachelor's degree in Mass Communication from UNC-Pembroke. She has 3 years of library experience in the public schools as a Library Media Coordinator where she performed all responsibilities of running a library on her own. We are happy to have her on our library team!

Harnett Library Community Garden

The Harnett Library community garden is now under way! We have three garden beds made by Jon Matthews. One holds cantaloupes and watermelons. A second holds squash and zucchini. And the third has beans planted; we have the bean poles up and strung waiting for the plants to grow. We have 11 tomato plants of five different varieties. We have a green bell pepper, a yellow bell pepper, two red bell peppers, two jalapenos, and one Goliath jalapeno. The herb garden has 10 different varieties of herbs, including chocolate mint! If we can find a place to put them, we also have some broccoli seeds and okra seeds. Space, however, is becoming an issue. Stop by any time to assist with maintaining the garden this summer, and enjoy some of the produce when it's ready!

Librarians Available for Summer Online Classes

Are you teaching this summer? If you think your students could benefit from persistent access to subject-specific library resources, consider adding a librarian assistant to your Blackboard course. If you opt in to having a librarian assistant, we'll place a library folder in your course, which will include a link to the Library Guide to your subject and a persistent chat box that students can use to contact a librarian 24/7 (with the exception of federal holidays). You can also opt to have a librarian embedded in your course - this means we will use your syllabus to select interactive library instruction modules specific to your course needs, add a library pre- and post-test to the Blackboard course so that we can gauge the effectiveness of the provided library instruction, and add a persistent chat box that students can use to contact a librarian 24/7 (again, with the exception of federal holidays).

Instructors speak highly of the benefits of library involvement in their courses, stating "those that do well on the library lessons tend to perform better on the writing assignments" and "I've heard from numerous students that this has helped them - especially the piece on how to evaluate sources and the APA material". Feel like enhancing your course with very little effort? Consider adding a librarian! Contact Nora Burmeister at nburm777@cccc.edu for more details.

"The reference librarians are amazing!
The staff is very kind and knowledgeable."
