NCLive

A new password for remote access to NCLive went into effect December 20, 2002. Please ask for this password at the circulation desk of each campus library.

New databases in NCLive:

Daily Life Through History offers a detailed portrayal of what life was like for ordinary people in different cultures throughout history. Includes: Over 600 color and black-and-white images, maps, and illustrations; A critical reference and research guide for studying comparative world history; Authentic recipes, clothing patterns, songs, dances, and games that give the look and feel of past times and past lives; and context that allows the user to draw the connection between common, daily activities, and historic events.

Historic Events of the 20th Century shows how the events of the last century shaped, and will continue to shape, the events of the 21st century. This online guide offers in-depth insight into the seminal events of the last century. Volumes included: The Civil Rights Movement; The Collapse of Communism in the Soviet Union; The Holocaust; Islamic Fundamentalism; World War I; and World War II.

Twentieth-Century English Poetry provides an overview of poetry written in the 20th century by both established and emerging writers.

Congratulations

Renee Watson, Media Librarian, and David Dusenbury were married on November 2, 2002.

Books for Sale

The Lee campus library still has books for sale from the inventory. Hardbacks cost 25 cents, paperbacks 10 cents.

Library Instruction

A variety of instructional classes are available for students, faculty, and staff at all campuses during the day or evening. The instructional services librarian will help determine the best class for the type and level of instruction needed. Individual instruction is available. Please contact Janice Pope at 718-7245 or jpope@cccc.edu.

Just a Reminder about Library Cards

Students: A student ID is required to check out items from the library and to gain remote access to electronic resources. Please bring your ID card to the circulation desk to be entered into the library system.

Faculty and staff: Beginning sometime this semester, a library card will be required to check out AV equipment. If you do not already have a card in the library, please come to the desk to get one.
