OED Online

Beginning October 1, 2004, the Oxford English Dictionary online version will be available on all library and campus computers and also off campus with a password that can be obtained at the library. The OED is the accepted authority on the evolution of the English language over the last millennium. It is an unsurpassed guide to the meaning, history, and pronunciation of over half a million words, both present and past. It traces the usage of words through 2.5 million quotations from a wide range of international English language sources, from classic literature and specialist periodicals to film scripts and cookery books.

Sports

The Summer Olympics recently ended. Baseball is headed toward the World Series. Football season is just beginning and Basketball is coming. Need to catch up on some sports knowledge?

Your Library Link to the World

A new password for remote access to NCLive went into effect August 16, 2004. Please ask for this password at the circulation desk of the library.

New Equipment

One DVD player is now available at each campus for checkout by instructors.

Just a Reminder about Library Cards

Students: A student ID is required to check out items from the library and to gain remote access to electronic resources. Please bring your ID card to the circulation desk to be entered into the library system.

Faculty and staff: A library card is required to check out AV equipment. If you do not already have a card in the library, please come to the circulation desk to get one.

You Don't Have the Book I Want--How Do I Get It?

The CCCC Library provides two different ways to get books from other libraries. The library is a member of a consortium of 44 libraries known as CCLINC (Community Colleges Libraries In North Carolina). Through the library catalog, items can be located at any or all of these libraries. To request a book from another library, you may call or come by a CCCC library or if you already have a library card, you may request the book online through the catalog. For instructions on how to do this, please call any of the campus libraries. The book will be sent to a CCCC library for you to check out. There is no charge for this service. Books usually arrive within one-two weeks.

Books that are not available at a CCLINC library can also be ordered through another type of interlibrary loan. If you are unable to locate a book through CCLINC, the interlibrary loan librarian, Ellen Viggiano, will try to get the book from another library. To request a book, please call the library or come by and fill out a yellow interlibrary loan form. A library card is also required for this type of interlibrary loan. Obtaining a book by this process usually takes longer--sometimes up to a month.

Library Instruction

During the year, a variety of instructional classes are available for students, faculty, and staff. The instructional services librarian will help determine the best class for the type and level of instruction needed. Individual instruction is available. Please contact Janice Pope at 718-7245 or jpope@cccc.edu.
