

BROADWAY FESTIVAL EVEN BETTER THIS YEAR

Mark your calendars, April 17—that's the date for this year's Broadway Our Way Festival in downtown Broadway, NC. The festival committee is hard at work to make the second year of the festival even better than last year's highly successful event.

Kicking off the festival are the Run the Buck 5K, beginning at 8a.m., and the Ride the Buck 50K/100K Bike Ride, beginning at 8:30a.m.

Festival goers will enjoy a wide variety of activities throughout the rest of the day, including a street fair with food and craft vendors, car and tractor displays, and a BBQ cook off featuring People's Choice awards.

Got talent? Enter the Broadway Idol Contest and win a cash prize for 1st, 2nd or 3rd place. The free kid's activities will be expanded this year, and live entertainment will be continuous at 2 venues: last year's Center Stage at the Broadway Community Center and Stage at the Park at the NC Veterans Memorial Park.

The street dance begins at 7 p.m. and features Gene Dickens and Second Chance Band, back again this year by popular demand. Also back from last year is the popular Sweet Potato Pie, a blue grass group. New to the festival will be Broadway's own Four Heart Harmony, winner of numerous country gospel music awards.

Bring your family and friends and spend the day in Broadway; there's something for everyone. For more information and entry forms go to <http://www.broadwaync.com> or call 919-258-9922.
