

5TH ANNUAL BROADWAY OUR WAY FESTIVAL SLATED FOR APRIL 20

It's almost here! Join the fun at the 5th annual Broadway Our Way Festival on Saturday April 20 from 10 in the morning until 10 at night. There will be lots to enjoy in Downtown Broadway! Have you signed up for this year's double-elimination Cornhole Tournament? There is a $250 cash prize for tournament champions, with runners-up receiving $100. Entry fee for the tournament is just $30 per 2-member team. Start time is 11 am at the NC Veterans Memorial, but in case of rain will be held at the Broadway Elementary School Gym. Please register by 10:45.

New to the festival this year will be a donut eating competition to be held at 6pm.

A number of other attractions begin at 10 a.m. on Main Street. Enjoy the Street Fair with many returning vendor favorites along with exciting new ones! Also free, fun Kid's Activities will be back. Activities, rides and games run until 4 pm. Also check out this year's array of classic and antique cars, trucks, motorcycles and tractors.

If you want a taste of the best barbeque in the area, come to Broadway and get here early! Ten teams will be accepted for competition in this year's Barbeque Cook-off featuring People's Choice awards. Tasting begins at 11am. You pay only $5 for unlimited BBQ tasting and the opportunity to vote for your favorite! Entry fee is $100 per team and pigs are provided by the Festival Committee. First place prize is $250, second place, $150 and third place $100.

In addition to all this there is great live entertainment throughout the day and evening. At 7pm Gene Dickens and Second Chance Band perform for our family-friendly street dance-always a hit!

Bring your family and friends and spend the day and evening at the Broadway Our Way Festival. We have a day full of fun activities for you. For more information go to www.broadway.com or call 919-258-9922.
