

NC STRIVE

STUDENT TRANSITION RESOURCE INITIATIVE FOR VETERAN'S EDUCATION

SAVE THE DATE: NC STRIVE 2016! – JUNE 15th

2015 marked the inaugural conference for NC STRIVE (Student Transition Resource Initiative for Veteran's Education), where we shared best practices to better serve our nation's veterans, service members, and their families. This year we will continue to highlight best practices as we focus on TRANSITION—from military to academic, from DoD to VA care, and from student to the workforce.

The program will combine experts in the field, panel presentations, small breakout groups, Green Zone training, and exhibits. A panel of student veterans will provide their unique perspective on helpful services and supports during their time in higher education.

Please join us on Wednesday, June 15, from 7:30a to 4:30p at the Dennis A. Wicker Civic Center in Sanford, NC. Register at <http://ncstrive2016.eventzilla.net>

Partners include the Governor's Institute on Substance Abuse; NC4VETS, North Carolina Department of Military and Veterans Affairs; the North Carolina Community College System; the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services; the North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities; the North Carolina National Guard; the University of North Carolina System; Troops to Teachers; North Carolina Department of Public Instruction; Veterans Health Administration and Veterans Benefits Administration; Vet Centers, and Veterans Upward Bound Program, Central Carolina Community College.

NC STRIVE 2016! is supported in part by block grant funding from the US Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration through the Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services, North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services; the University of North Carolina System; Central Carolina Community College; and the Harnett County Veterans Council. For the agenda visit <http://ncveteransworkinggroup.org/nc-strive/>

