Proctors must use a professional email address that meets the approval of the distance education department.
In most circumstances, this means a proctor will use an .edu (educational) or .org (business/organization) e-mail address.
Please note exams will not be emailed to student accounts under any circumstances.
Exams must be administered and supervised by you in your place of business.

Proctor Agreement

I am not related to the student named above. I agree to personally administer the test(s) to the above student, and I will adhere to the guidelines outlined by the cover sheet’s instructions. I will not leave him/her unsupervised during the exam administration. I further understand that this is a voluntary, non-paying position unless arrangements are made between the student and me. I will personally mail or fax the completed exam(s) to Central Carolina Community College’s distance education department immediately after the student has completed the exam(s).

Student Agreement

I understand that my proctor is required to send the completed exam(s) to CCCC. I will not duplicate, retain, or fax any part of the exam(s) materials in whole or in part, doing so could result in receiving a failing grade.
