

OPEN MIC NIGHT

SPRING 2017

The CCCC Continuing Education Creative Writing Program invites the public to join writers of prose and poetry for our annual Spring Open Mic Night.

Friday, April 7, 2017
6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

The Joyful Jewel
44-A Hillsboro St. Pittsboro, NC

Theme: Renewal

Please join us as we reinvigorate our spirit with words, wisdom, and well-wishing. As verdure and vitality wave winter adieu, we invite you to join us in our reflections on renewal. Declare your budding desires like a dogwood tree in bloom. All takes are welcome, so bring us your related revels, whether they're about redoing your kitchen, reviving a friendship, refilling your cup, restoring your old jalopy, resurrecting your lawn mower, recharging your batteries, or just revising your prose.

Notes to writers who plan to read:

- Sign in when you arrive.
- You'll read in the order you signed in. (Note: if you want to read later in the evening, sign at the bottom of the page!)
- You'll have six minutes, including any introductions, background information, and closing remarks you wish to make.
