Summer Time

Coming Soon—Nook Color eReaders!

Nook Color eReaders will be available for checkout to students, faculty, and staff at all three campuses later this summer or early fall semester. The eReaders will be preloaded with classics and best sellers, as well as various apps. Signing a user agreement will be required at the time of checkout. The checkout period will be for 3 weeks with no renewals. A late fine will apply to all borrowers. Please allow extra time for checkout and return of the Nook Color devices. Watch for an announcement about when the eReaders will be available on the library web page, the library Facebook page, and the staff announcements page.

Time to Celebrate

Library Assistant Peggy Cotten completed a Masters in Library Science (MLS) from North Carolina Central University in May. Liz Kelly, Evening Library Assistant also completed certificates in Library Public Services and Library Technical Services from CCCC this month. Finally, a fond farewell to Evening Librarian, Leonard Viggiano on his well deserved retirement. Congratulations!

Time to Renew

The Harnett Library will undergo renovations beginning May 29th through June 18th and will reopen on Tuesday, June 19th. During this time, library services will be provided in room 312 of the Etheridge Building. Since opening in 1991, this will be the first time that Harnett Library has been renovated. Students, faculty, and staff can look forward to new carpet, fresh paint, new furniture, an upgraded library security system, and additional computers. Be sure to stop in and take a look when the library reopens!

Time to Discover

Two new Special Collections have been added and are located near the front door of the library. They are Foreign Languages and Early Childhood Literature.

Additional Salem Press titles are being added to our growing list of online resources. These include the following multi-volume titles: Inventors & Inventions, Latinos, Mathematics & Society, Notorious Lives, and The Renaissance & Early Modern Era. These titles are also available in print.

A new Sharpe Online Reference (SOLR) title has been added. American Countercultures is now available within the "US History and Culture" section.

The library has purchased some new foreign language movies on DVD. Some are also bi-lingual or multi-lingual by way of the audio selection menu with Spanish, Asian, and other language options.
