

News from the Library

A Newsletter of Central Carolina Community College Libraries Vol. 2, No. 3 September, 2002

Just a Reminder about Library Cards

Students: A student ID is required to check out items from the library and to gain remote access to electronic resources. Please bring your ID card to the circulation desk to be entered into the library system.

Faculty and staff: Beginning with the spring semester, a library card will be required to check out AV equipment. If you do not already have a card in the library, please come to the desk to get one.

NCLive

A new password for remote access to NCLive went into effect September 2, 2002. Please ask for this password at the circulation desk of the library.

Two new databases in NCLive:
Critical Companions to Popular Contemporary Writers

An in-depth analysis of current, best-selling fiction.

Regional Business News

Abstracts for 67 regional business publications, with full text for 52 of those titles including Business North Carolina.

You Don't Have the Book I Want--How Do I Get It?

The CCCC Library provides two different ways to get books from other libraries. The library is a member of a consortium of 44 libraries known as CCLINC (Community Colleges Libraries In North Carolina). Through the library catalog, items can be located at any or all of these libraries. To request a book from another library, you may call or come by a CCCC library or if you already have a library card, you may request the book online through the catalog. For instructions on how to do this, please call the library at 718-7244. The book will be sent to this library for you to check out. Books usually arrive within one-two weeks.

Books that are not available at a CCLINC library can also be ordered through another type of interlibrary loan. If you are unable to locate a book through CCLINC, the interlibrary loan librarian, Ellen Viggiano, will try to get the book from another library. This process requires you to have a library card, to call the library or come by and fill out a yellow interlibrary loan form. Obtaining a book by this process usually takes longer--sometimes up to a month.

Books for Sale

The staff inventoried the items in the library this summer. As a result of this inventory many books are now for sale. Hardbacks cost $1.00, paperbacks $.50.

Library Instruction

During the year, a variety of instructional classes are available for students, faculty, and staff. The instructional services librarian will help determine the best class for the type and level of instruction needed. Individual instruction is available. Please contact Janice Pope at 718-7245 or jpope@cccc.edu.
