@ your library®

During the coming year, the library is planning activities to coincide with a national campaign instituted by the American Library Association, Association of College and Research Libraries. You will recognize them by the title, "...@ your library®."

Our first activity is scheduled on September 11 at 11 a.m. Dr. Marvin Joyner, president of CCCC, will be our first guest in our Meet the Administrators @ your library® series. Students will be invited to chat with Dr. Joyner in the magazine reading area of the library. Other administrators will be invited for future sessions. We also hope to offer Meet the Instructors @ your library®. For this series, instructors will be invited to converse about their personal and professional interests and how they conduct their classes.

Additional events are still in the planning stages. Keep watch for @ your library® signs so you won't miss any of these activities.

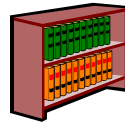

Just a Reminder about Library Cards

Students: A student ID is required to check out items from the library and to gain remote access to electronic resources. Please bring your ID card to the circulation desk to be entered into the library system.

Faculty and staff: A library card is now required to check out AV equipment. If you do not already have a card in the library, please come to the circulation desk to get one.

You Don't Have the Book I Want--How Do I Get It?

The CCCC Library provides two different ways to get books from other libraries. The library is a member of a consortium of 44 libraries known as CCLINC (Community Colleges Libraries In North Carolina). Through the library catalog, items can be located at any or all of these libraries. To request a book from another library, you may call or come by a CCCC library or if you already have a library card, you may request the book online through the catalog. For instructions on how to do this, please call the library at 718-7244. The book will be sent to this library for you to check out. Books usually arrive within one-two weeks.

Books that are not available at a CCLINC library can also be ordered through another type of interlibrary loan. If you are unable to locate a book through CCLINC, the interlibrary loan librarian, Ellen Viggiano, will try to get the book from another library. This process requires you to have a library card, to call the library or to come by and fill out a yellow interlibrary loan form. Obtaining a book by this process usually takes longer--sometimes up to a month.

Library Instruction

During the year, a variety of instructional classes are available for students, faculty, and staff. The instructional services librarian will help determine the best class for the type and level of instruction needed. Individual instruction is available.
