Public Safety

BASIC LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING (BLET)

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Basic Law Enforcement Training Curriculum prepares entry-level individuals with the cognitive and physical skills needed to become certified law enforcement officers in North Carolina. The curriculum is comprised of 39 separate blocks of instruction that include topics such as Law Enforcement Driver Training, Motor Vehicle Laws, and Arrest, Search and Seizure/Constitutional Law. The curriculum also includes de-escalation training, which focuses on the handling of diverse situations. The BLET curriculum employs practical exercises and an extensive ethics section throughout the training experience. The BLET course has been thoroughly researched, legally reviewed and contains the most current law enforcement information available.

CCCC Career Community

Students in the Public Safety career community are public service-oriented, highly motivated, detail-oriented, empathetic, patient, resilient, adaptable, and calm under pressure. Skills required to be successful in this career community include assessing hazardous situations, contingency planning, communicating across all levels--including the public, and executing work effectively and efficiently. Graduates find employment in law enforcement, corrections, emergency medical services, firefighting, private firms, and policy think tanks.
